

LOVE YOUR EARTH

BINGO

Pick up trash around your neighborhood	Make a kindness rock; leave it outside for someone to find	Read a book about Earth	Start a plant from seed	Discuss with your family ways to conserve water at home
Learn about the pollination and how it impacts our food supply	Go for a bike ride	Draw a picture of the water cycle	Write a story or poem about the environment	Go electronics free all day!
Plant a flowering plant that is attractive to bees	Go for a walk outside	FREE 	Research the benefits of composting	Research an endangered species
Identify three ways to conserve electricity in your home	Make a homemade bird feeder	Go for a hike and sketch what you saw	Identify three different tree species in your neighborhood	Learn about composting
Learn about what materials can be recycled	Create a bug hotel for creepy crawlies in your yard	Enjoy reading a book outside	Make a fairy house using materials found in nature	Learn how bats help our environment

Community Conversations: Can We Talk About the Environment?

www.goffstownlibrary.com/communityconversation

LOVE YOUR EARTH

BINGO

This challenge is for kids in kindergarten through grade 5. Limit one board per person.

1. Check off each box when you have completed the activity; for each completed row of activities you will earn one raffle ticket for a chance to win a prize. Rows can be completed in any direction either vertically, diagonally, or horizontally.
2. Present your completed BINGO board rows at the Library's Circulation Desk to receive your raffle ticket(s) no later than 5pm on Thursday, May 27.
3. Three raffle names will be pulled on Friday, May 28, and will be contacted that day.
4. Two winners will receive an environment-themed basket of goodies!
5. One winner will receive a brand new compost bin donated by the Goffstown Public Works Department!
6. Please contact the Children's Room with any questions by calling (603) 497-2102 or email @ pattip@goffstownlibrary.com

Community Conversations: Can We Talk About the Environment?
www.goffstownlibrary.com/communityconversation